The Original recycled paper

Cyclus Silk is a 100% recycled light coated, natural white paper ideal for full colour and black and white printing. The non-reflective surface is especially suitable for publications with a combination of large text areas and high quality pictures. Cyclus is made from 100% recycled pulp, which reduces water consumption and also uses considerably less energy compared to virgin fibers paper. By choosing Cyclus Silk, you can meet your environmental commitments without compromising the visual quality of your work.
